It's always difficult writing these notes when we have a game in between compiling them and publication. However, unless something went drastically wrong at Chesterfield on Saturday, we return to Burnden Park for our first home League game in a month reasonably satisfied with recent results.

Four League games in February without defeat, three of them away from home, has steadied the ship. Now we have to build again because there are still 48 points to play for, half of them here at Burnden.

Phil Neal Notebook

All being well you'll get your first look this afternoon at Paul Atkinson who has been brought in from Oldham to give us more depth in strength in midfield. I've also been pleased to see Steve Elliott get his name on the scoresheet in a couple of recent games because with Tony Caldwell out of the side tonight it's important that more of our players get into the scoring habit.

We played a friendly against Scarborough to give us some action after our scheduled game against Wigan was postponed and I took the chance to give one or two of our youngsters a run out. They didn't let me down at all and Paul Griffiths will remember his first senior goal for the club with satisfaction.

The Scarborough match was followed by three days of intensive activity at Lilleshall where all the players were able to get away from outside pressures and build on the team spirit.

That team spirit, with everyone working for everyone else, will see us through the next few crucial games in which every team we play seems to be aiming for promotion or fighting relegation worries. The last third of the season promises to be anything but dull.

NIGHTLINE — COMING SOON

When you next call into your local for a well deserved pint, watch out for NIGHTLINE, a new nightly cash draw exclusive to pubs.

For only 50p per week you have the chance to win £100 per night, 5 nights a week Monday-Friday. And your 50p gives you 10 chances in each draw which means 50 chances a week to get in the money.

Ask your landlord or landlady for details or ask them to contact the Wanderers' Development Office for information about this the new NIGHTLINE scheme.

GRAND NATIONAL SPECIAL

The Grand National at Aintree is undoubtedly one of the biggest days in the racing calendar and the Wanderers' have come up with a brand new lottery ticket based on the big race.

Each ticket, which went on sale yesterday, carries four chances of a £100 prize plus thousands of consolation prizes and there's an exciting bonus.

Any ticket carrying the name of a horse will qualify for a special sweepstake with a £1000 top prize for the actual Grand National winner.

Ask your regular lottery agent for the Grand National Special or call in at the Development Office after today's game.

TRAVEL CLUB NEWS

The Wanderers Travel Club is the official way to watch the team away from home. Membership cost £2.00 and is valid until the end of next season.

Members can now book for the game at Chester City on March 7th depart 12.45pm at a cost of £3.00.

DISAPPOINTING SEASON FOR BRENTFORD

by Tony Pullein

Brentford went into this season hoping to figure in the promotion race but they have never properly recovered from a poor start and now their major aim is to avoid relegation. With early exits from both major Cup competitions, this has been a disappointing season for the Bees.

In January the club decided to dispense with the services of manager Frank McLintock. Steve Perryman, the former Spurs player was appointed player manager only last week.

Prior to their visit to Bury last Saturday,

Brentford had won only two away League games — at Fulham (3-1) and Rotherham (3-2). They drew at Carlisle (0-0), Chester (1-1), Wigan (1-1), Bournemouth (1-1) and Darlington (1-1).

The Bees were beaten at Doncaster (0-2), Gillingham (0-2), Mansfield (0-1), Walsall (2-5), Swindon (0-2), Blackpool (0-2) and Port Vale (1-4).

They were beaten 2-4 on aggregate by Southend in the first round of the Littlewoods Cup.

In the first round of the F.A. Cup they won 2-0 at home to Bristol Rovers in a replay following a 0-0 draw at Twerton Park. They then went out at Cardiff (0-2) in the next round.

They did enjoy a reasonable run in the Freight-Rover Trophy after collecting maximum points in their group with wins over Orient (5-1 away) and Swindon (4-2). In the first round they defeated Walsall (4-2) but then went out 0-3 away to the holders Bristol City in the Southern Quarter Final.

Two seasons ago Brentford reached the final of the Freight-Rover Trophy, losing 1-3 to Wigan before a crowd of almost 40,000 at Wembley.

Brentford F.C. was formed in 1888, initially competing in the West London Alliance. They were admitted to the second division of the Southern League in 1898 and three years later gained promotion to the top section.

They suffered one relegation but had returned when the Football League took over the entire Southern League first division to form the new Third Division (South) in 1920. The Bees had to apply for re-election at the end of that first season and did so again in 1925.

Centre row: Robbie Cooke, Richard Key, Gary Phillips, Jamie Murray.

In 1930 Brentford finished runners-up to Plymouth but in those days only one club was promoted. They remained around the top until eventually clinching promotion as Champions in 1933.

Two years later Brentford entered the First Division and for a while they were a good First Division side. Sadly, the second world war disrupted things and in 1947 they were relegated. Seven years after that they returned to the Third Division and they have never since risen above that level.

Indeed, they have on three occasions been relegated to Division Four, their last spell in the basement ending in 1978.

They have been close to relegation several times since then so their current battle for Third Division survival is nothing new for them.

STEVE PERRYMAN (Player-Manager). Steve was signed from Oxford in November and took over as caretaker-manager when Frank McLintock left in January. Steve enjoyed 16 glorious years with Tottenham, establishing a new club record of 829 appearances before leaving for Oxford last season. He played for England at full, under-23 and youth levels and won two F.A. Cup winners' medals, two League Cup winners' tankards and was in two winning UEFA Cup sides.

GARY PHILLIPS (Goalkeeper). Gary started his professional career with W.B.A. but then went non-League with Barnet. Brentford signed him in 1984 and he has been holding his place for two years..

JAMIE BATES (Defender). Jamie was spotted in junior football and has been given his chance in League soccer this season. He has been holding a central defensive position for several weeks.

MICKY DROY (Defender). Brentford signed the giant Micky from Crystal Palace in November. He started his League career with Chelsea in 1971 and completed more than 300 competitive games for the Stamford Bridge club. After a loan spell at Luton, he joined Palace in 1985.

JAMIE MURRAY (Defender). Jamie spent his early days with Cambridge, first tasted League soccer in 1977 and went on to make over 250 senior appearances before his transfer to Brentford in 1984.

ROGER JOSEPH (Defender). Roger was playing for Southall when Brentford went in to sign him. He made one League appearance in 1984/85 and won a firm place last term.

PAUL MADDY (Midfield). Paul is a former Wales youth international who made his League debut for Cardiff in 1980/81. Whilst at Ninian Park, Paul was capped twice by Wales under-21s and he moved on to Swansea in 1983. His stay at The Vetch was quite short and, within a matter of weeks, he was on the move again to Hereford. Brentford signed him last summer.

ANDY SINTON (Midfield). Andy is a former England schoolboy international who got his League chance with Cambridge in 1982. He moved on to Brentford early last season.

WAYNE TURNER (Midfield). Wayne made his League debut for Luton in 1979 and in 1981/82 he spent a loan period with Lincoln. Coventry signed him for £75,000 in 1985 and he moved on to Brentford during the early weeks of this season.

ROBBIE CARROLL (Midfield). Robbie joined the Bees from Southampton and earned his chance in their Third Division side in November when he made his debut against Bolton at Griffin Park.

PAUL MERSON (Midfield). Paul is on loan from Arsenal. Though he has not played in the Gunners' first-team, he has been gaining valuable League experience with the Bees.

FRANCIS JOSEPH (Forward). Wimbledon spotted Francis playing for Hillingdon and The Dons introduced him to their senior side in 1980/81. The following season he was their top scorer and Brentford paid £40,000 to sign him. Francis topped the Bees' list of marksmen in his first two seasons with 24 and 22 but then his career was interrupted when he broke a leg.

ROBBIE COOKE (Forward). Robbie is one of the Third Division's leading scorers, having netted 19 times before the weekend. After starting his League career with Mansfield, he drifted into non-League football with Grantham until Peterborough gave him a come-back chance in 1980. He responded by leading the Posh's scoring list in his first two seasons. Cambridge signed him in 1983 and he joined the Bees two seasons ago. Last season he was top scorer with 18.

GARY STEVENS (Forward). Cardiff City signed Gary from Evesham and he made his League debut for the Bluebirds in 1978. In 1981/82 he was top scorer with 15 goals and that inspired Shrewsbury to invest £20,000 in his transfer. Gary became a leading scorer for Shrewsbury with 20 in 1984/85 and he remained at Gay Meadow until his latest move last summer.

COLLECTOR'S CORNER

Today's collector's item is the programme from the Brentford v Bolton First Division game played at Griffin Park on the 2nd November 1946.

The newsy twelve page issue would have set you back 2d with Notes from the Hive by the Busy Bee telling supporters that one point from the previous six games didn't measure up to the club's great start to the season.

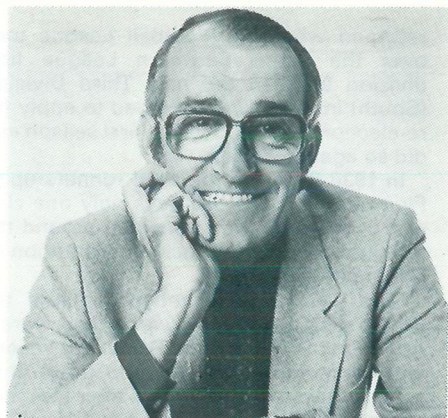

A look at the Wanderers is very factual listing all the players to have scored four goals for the club which was thirteen up to that time. Of course all these have now been surpassed by Tony Caldwell's five goal haul against Walsall in 1983.

Both clubs were struggling near the foot of the table and Brentford fielded a new signing in George McDonald from Kilmarnock. The two sides for the game were:

Bolton: Hanson, Hamlett, Hubbick, Howe, Atkinson, Forrest, Geldard, Roberts, Lofthouse, Westwood and Moir.
Brentford: Crozier, Gorman, Munro, Toulouse, Smith, Wilkins, Hopkins, Shaw, Blakeman, McDonald and Gillien.

The goal that settled the game came in the 25th minute when a back pass from Don Howe eluded Stan Hanson and flew between the angle of the bar and post. Ray Westwood hit the bar for the Wanderers ten minutes later which was the nearest the Wanderers came to scoring whilst just before half time, Hanson saved a penalty from Wilkins awarded for handball.

This proved to be the last first division encounter between the sides to be played at Griffin Park as Brentford were relegated along with Leeds United.

BULLSEYE

Television personality Jim Bowen, star of the popular ITV 'Bullseye' game show, heads the cabaret in the Burnden Executive Suite on Wednesday, March 18th.

Tickets are now available from the Development Office priced at just £3.00 for a night of entertainment which starts at 8pm and ends at 1.00am.

A Lancashire born ex-schoolteacher, Jim Bowen first shot to national fame in Granada TV 'Comedians' series and has presented 'Bullseye' for three series to date.

WEMBLEY BOUND

Bolton will be represented at Wembley before the F.A. Cup Final in May when two young local girls line-up in the annual ball juggling contest.

Trained by Gordon Williams at Kearsley Sports Centre the girls, pictured with Nat Lofthouse are Jeannette Williams (right) and Linda Entwistle (left).

The girls joined other members of the Bolton Jugglers to give a short display of their considerable skills before the Fulham game and were presented with awards to mark their Wembley date.

Flashback

PAST ENCOUNTERS

Brentford visit Burnden Park today for what will be the 24th Football League meeting between the clubs. To date the Londoner's have the edge having won nine of the previous encounters to the Wanderers seven.

The Wanderers have always found scoring difficult against Brentford only once scoring above two goals in a game. That was in the very first League game between the sides in September 1933 at Burnden, in a second division encounter, when the Wanderers won 3-2. That day Bolton came from two goals down to win the game a last minute penalty from Jack Milsom securing the points.

The two clubs won promotion together to the first division in 1934/35 and Brentford were the first visitors on the opening day of the following season, a couple of goals from Holliday won them the game, and they completed the only double between the sides with a 4-0 win at Griffin Park the following December.

More recently the Wanderers last victory over Brentford at Burnden was in December 1983 when a Jeff Chandler goal four minutes from time settled the issue. The following season a 1-1 draw resulted, Steve Thompson netting for the Wanderers, and Chris Kamara equalising with Brentford's first goal in five League and cup visit's to Burnden. Last season Brentford took the points in a 2-1 win, Warren Joyce giving the Wanderers the lead before Steve Wignall and Robbie Cooke scored for the Bees, Steve Thompson also saw his 37th minute penalty saved by Gary Phillips.

Earlier this season the wanderers ended a run of twelve League and cup visit's to Griffin Park without a win thanks to goals from Mark Gavin and Steve Thompson which sandwiched a goal from Paul Maddy for Brentford.

Our Football League record against Brentford is as follows:

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	11	6	3	2	16	10
AWAY	12	1	4	7	11	23
TOTAL	23	7	7	9	27	33

15 YEARS AGO

4th March 1972. A goal from Ralph Wright on his home debut was enough to defeat Chesterfield at Burnden. His winner, a spectacular header from twelve yards, came in the 74th minute.

Just before the transfer deadline, Kevin McMahon joined the Wanderers on a months loan from York and centre half John Hulme joined Notts County also on loan. Peter Thompson turned down a move to Bolton after the clubs had agreed a fee.

11th March 1972. The Wanderers defeat Port Vale 3-0 at Burnden with goals from Peter Nicholson, Kevin McMahon, on his debut as substitute and Roger Hunt.

10 YEARS AGO

5th March 1977. After dropping points in the previous two games after having led 2-0, the Wanderers made no mistake against Plymouth Argyle, defeating the lowly side 3-0. Neil Whatmore opened the scoring with his 21st goal of the season and Paul Jones increased the lead from the penalty spot in the 28th minute. Whatmore made sure of victory with the third goal two minutes from time.

A Wanderers bid to sign Alan Hansen from Partick Thistle was turned down by the Scottish club but Ray Train signed minutes before the deadline in a 35,000 deal with Sunderland.

5 YEARS AGO

2nd March 1982. The Wanderers drew 1-1 at Grimsby Town with a disputed penalty three minutes from time denying Bolton victory. Tony Henry put the Wanderers in front two minutes from half time and in the 75th minute Jim McDonagh saved a Joe Waters penalty. Waters scored with his second penalty of the evening awarded for handball which led to a storm of protest.

6th March 1982. A penalty five minutes from time, converted by Paul Jones, won Bolton the points against Cardiff City at Burnden in a four relegation clash.

RE-DOUBLE THE EFFORT

The despicable happenings at Port Vale will have sickened every right minded supporter as much as it did us at Burnden Park.

Coming, as it did, after eleven successful weeks of our 'Out With The Lout' campaign has made us doubly determined to get to grips with the problem.

We thank all those fans who co-operated with the police at Vale Park and those who have rung us since the incident with information. All your leads have been followed up while maintaining your anonymity.

That's what the campaign is about. All of us working together to rid Burnden Park of the undesirable element.

ACTION

Fact File

Competition for Young Fans

As you may know Bolton Wanderers have joined "The Community Programme in Professional Football" involving a total of six clubs in the North West. As part of the drive towards involving the community and — more particularly — families even further we are delighted to announce details of an easy competition for Under 16 year olds to enter. The prize is a smashing weekend for a family of up to four when Bolton are playing in the Capital City — and there are consolation prizes too!

All you have to do is answer the following six questions about the six clubs involved in the Community Programme project;

1. Who was Centre Half for Manchester United in their 1968 European Cup winning side?
2. Who were Preston North End's opponents when they attracted their largest ever First Division attendance in 1938?
3. Who was Bury's leading goalscorer during season 1985/6 (and who was he transferred to before the end of the season?)
4. Who were Oldham Athletics opponents in September 1986 when victory took Latics to the top of the Second Division?
5. Who holds the record for being Bolton Wanderers most capped player for England (and how many appearances did he make?)
6. Who scored the winning goal for Manchester City in the 1969 F.A. Cup Final against Leicester City?

With your entry you should also answer the following question but for this you will need to obtain a copy of the summer 1987 Sol Holidays brochure.

Name the two new destinations featured in the brochure and include your answer with your entry.

The first correct entry drawn out of a hat on Monday 23rd March, 1987 will win a fabulous weekend for mum, dad and up to two youngsters. Arranged for you will be return rail travel arriving in London on the Friday evening and returning during Sunday. Two nights accommodation in London at the Crest Hotel will also be provided together with tickets for the match you wish to see.

Mr Ian Lees of Churchfield Travel, Manchester, who are providing the prizes said:

"As a lifelong football supporter I am delighted to involve my company in a worthwhile effort to further involve the family in professional football".

Send your entries to: Mr Ian Lees (Bolton Wanderers Competition),

Reserve Report

4th February 1987.

Doncaster Rovers Reserves 2 Bolton Wanderers Reserves 4

Two goals in under two minutes, the first after 12 seconds, gave the Wanderers a tremendous start against an experienced Doncaster side at Belle Vue. Paul Allen was on hand to finish a right wing move from the kick off and Nick Brookman converted a George Oghani cross for Bolton's second goal.

The Wanderers then soaked up Doncaster's efforts to get back into the game with Kevin Mailey twice denying former Wanderers Neil Redfearn.

Paul Griffin put Bolton three up seven minutes into the second half when he raced clear of a square Rover's defence and it wasn't until nine minutes from time that the home side found a reply when Neil Redfearn blasted home from the edge of the penalty area.

George Oghani spectacularly headed home the Wanderers fourth goal from a Glyn Bohannon cross six minutes from time and in the final minute Neil Redfearn converted a penalty kick for Doncaster awarded for handball by Paul Hughes.

Team: Mailey, Hughes, Clarke, Brookman, Neal, Winstanley, Bohannon, Griffin, Oghani, Allen and Mullineux. Subs: Banks and Senior.

18th February 1987.

Scunthorpe United Reserves 2 Bolton Wanderers Reserves 2

The Reserves extended their unbeaten run to five games although for the third successive game conceded a goal in the last minute which cost them victory at the Old Show Ground.

In very difficult conditions the Wanderers were much the better side early on and it was no surprise when George Oghani gave them the lead, glancing home a Nick Brookman cross. The Wanderers second goal came from the penalty spot, early in the second half, Paul Hughes converting the kick awarded for handball.

United scrambled their first goal due much to the bone hard, snow covered goalmouth, but Paul Griffin wasted a tremendous chance to put the result beyond doubt for Bolton late on.

Team: Salmon, Brookman, Clarke, Calaghan, Welsh, Winstanley, Hughes, Griffin, Oghani, Allen, Mullineux. Subs: Banks and Senior both used.
